The '63 Mac

Volume XVI

McGraw Central School

McGraw, New York

Dedication

The greatest of responsibilities lies on the teacher. Through his example and teaching he must impart a sense of honesty, loyalty, honor, and courage. These virtues are the building blocks of our future lives; and the teacher a fond memory. The beginning blocks must provide a sturdy foundation.

The Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate the '63 "Mac" to two charming teachers that have nourished the minds of many children as they began the foundation of their virtues as they go through life, Mrs. Norma Russell and Mrs. Josephine Foreman.

In Memoriam

Out of all the happiness this year has brought to us, there has been one great touch of sadness, the passing of Mrs. Mary Heath. For thirty years she devoted her life to teaching students who have attended McGraw High School. Those of us who now attend McGraw Central were not fortunate enough to have been her students, yet she is endeared in all of our hearts. Many of our mothers and fathers, aunts and uncles, and brothers and sisters were her students and everyone will remember her for the many community affairs and projects in which she participated. It is indeed a fitting tribute to her memory that it can be said "She was my teacher."

Administration

Board of Education

LEROY A. BAER
Principal

This year, after twenty-four years as principal of McGraw Central School, Mr. Baer is retiring. On behalf of the Yearbook Club we wish to thank him for his loyalty and devotion to the "Mac." On behalf of the student body we wish to thank him for all the help and guidance which have made us better young men and women.

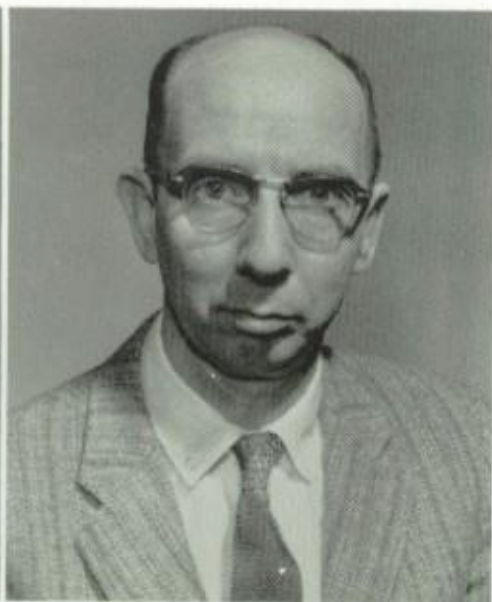

Student Council

CLOCKWISE: Phyllis Ryan, Fred Sloan, Linda Eaton, Diann Quattro, William Schaefer, Roger Stafford, Arlen Perkins, Kathie Raymond, John Mulcahy, Duane Alexander, Marlene Hobart, and William Hulsander.

Arlen Perkins, president of the Student Council, is explaining the title and source of one of our assembly programs. Arlen does an excellent job in presenting these programs and we are grateful to her for the fine job she has done.

Pencils, anyone? Lucinda, Ed and Marty were the high sales men for the Frosh's annual pencil sales.

John looks like he is trying to lead a discussion group, but Vicki, Arlen, Butch, Larry, Dave, Paul, and Barb don't look too cooperative.

Does Mr. Kelsen always get this kind of response from his American History class?

Robert Wright and Sue McNamara

Their opinions both coincide when it comes to Geometry.

This is fun?

"It took us awhile but we finally found the right article."

LATIN II

In translating the works of Julius Caesar, members of the Latin II class often find it a difficult job requiring the assistance of a good friend.

Shown are Beth and Edmond swapping ideas with other classmates.

Participation in activities is an important and usually exciting part of learning a foreign language. Shown are Richard Dolly and John McGrady enacting a humorous scene from a play about a missionary and a cannibal. What do you suppose that cannibal did with his wives so that he could become a Christian?

Earth Science
